

Recently locals gathered to hit some golf balls while helping the Guardian ad Litem Program. The Institute of Management Accountants (IMA) Florida State University Student Chapter and Sundberg, P.A. held its second annual Golf Driving Range Fundraiser on April 2nd in support of the program. Participants contributed gift cards. The Guardian ad Litem program is a volunteer based program that advocates for abused and neglected children. IMA collected $450 worth of gift cards, including cards from Chick-Fil-A, Subway and AMC.

"Our volunteers appreciate the opportunity to use a gift card to take their Guardian ad Litem child out for a special treat and spend quality time together," said Guardian ad Litem Circuit Director Deborah Moore.

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Locals got to hit a bucket a balls at the second annual Golf Driving Range Fundraiser after donating a gift card for abused or neglected children. The Institute of Management Accountants (IMA) Florida State University Student Chapter and Sundberg, Penn., hosted the event in support of the Guardian ad Litem program.

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Institute of Management Accountants Florida State University Student Chapter and Sundberg, Penn., recently held its second annual Golf Driving Range Fundraiser in support of the Guardian ad Program at Don Vellers Seminole Golf Course. Pictured are: (left to right) Ethan Alexander, Anton Sushko, Cosme Garcia, Alejandro Pardron, Abraham Alvarado, Deborah Moore, Tyler Rorer, Carol Howerton, and (kneeling) Jeffrey Scarpello.